Join Cindy and Jaseth from Women in Crisis and Barb from Family Transition Place for this informative webinar building on the skills and knowledge gained in the previous session.

This presentation will give participants tools to address the risk of sex trafficking by helping young people build resilience. Presenters will provide a brief overview of human trafficking and share information about resilience factors, how to determine and address the unmet needs of young people, how to talk to young people about consent and healthy relationships, safety planning, and understanding the supports available. Presenters will draw on real world examples to help parents and caregivers understand how trafficking happens and where to go for support if needed.

Following the presentation, there will be an opportunity to ask questions.
