STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Attendance	Regular and punctual attendance is essential for the successful completion of each course. If you are absent for any classes, you are responsible for obtaining the notes and work missed. For more information of consequences for non-attendance, refer to the Student Handbook or school website.
Academic Honesty	John F. Ross requires academic honesty from all students. Academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, use of translation sites and cheating on test or exams, will result in a zero for the evaluation. Refer to the Student Handbook for the complete policy.
Tests, In-class work and Assignments will constitute 70% of the final grade	If a student is to be absent for a test or presentation, a parent or guardian must advise the teacher before the test, or on the day of the test by a phone call to the school. If a student is absent because of a school-sponsored activity, she/he may write the test at a pre-arranged time that is convenient for the teacher. In extenuating circumstances, the make-up policy may be waived if, in the teacher's opinion, it is justifiable. If a test or an assignment is missed for any reason, the teacher may opt to give an alternative form of evaluation for that unit. Late assignments may be subjected to a late penalty of up to 10%. Students are expected to submit late assignments in a timely fashion, or they may be only accepted as a completion. Students will be told in advance when assignments are due. It is the student's responsibility to plan, prepare, complete and submit the assignment by the due date. If extra help is required, students may make these arrangements with their teacher prior to the due date.
Final 30%	It is your responsibility to attempt all final evaluations. Any parts not attempted will be given a mark of "zero". Family trips and employment are not acceptable reasons for missing culminating activities or examinations. A doctor's note will be required to allow a student to complete a missed culminating activity or examination. Refer to the Student Handbook for the complete policy.

Upper Grand District School Board Expectations:

This course incorporates, as appropriate, considerations for program planning that align with ministry and board policy and initiatives (e.g., planning related to students with special education needs, English language learners, environmental education, equity and inclusive education, financial literacy education, the Ontario First Nation, Métis, and Inuit education policy framework, the role of information and communications technology, health and safety, etc.).

Additional information for this course is available on our school website at <http://www.ugdsb.on.ca/jfr/>, under department websites and course websites.

ALL cellphones and electronic devices must be off or on silent mode at all times when students are in class and put away so as not to be visible to or useable by students or teachers. If a student is found to be using a cell phone during class time, checking messages, texting or receiving texts, the classroom teacher will request that the phone be surrendered to the teacher. The teacher will either return the phone at the end of class with a warning or deliver the cell phone to the appropriate Vice-Principal.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN A LANGUAGE CLASS:

- Keep an open mind.
- Keep trying.
- Do not fear making mistakes.
- Attendance: Students who attend classes regularly will have a greater degree of success.
- Come to class prepared to participate in the learning process.
- Ask for help and further explanations when needed.
- Make your studies your number one priority. SET MANAGEABLE, ACHIEVABLE AND REALISTIC GOALS!
- Complete all dialogues/performance tasks and other summative evaluations on time. It is up to the student to ensure that extra-curricular activities and part-time jobs do not interfere with his/her ability to attend classes, complete assignments and prepare for tests.
