

NOVEMBER 2023

Cooperative Coparenting Through Separation and Divorce November 1, 2023, 7:00-8:00pm + 1/2 hour Q&A

When parents separate, they become co-parents and must work toward the benefit of the children. In this workshop, you'll learn how divorce can impact you and your children and how to work with the co-parent in a cooperative way. We'll explore ways to deal with the emotions of separation and divorce and work in the best interest of your children. Topics will explore effectively communicating with your ex-spouse, basic parenting skills, anger management, conflict management and encourage families to work together toward supporting your children together.

The Art of Distraction: Help Your Child with ADHD Thrive November 9, 2023, 7:00-8:00pm + 1/2 hour Q&A

Do you wonder if your child has ADHD, or has your child been diagnosed with ADHD? Children with ADHD experience different challenges at home, school and in the community that can be stressful and overwhelming for families. This workshop will provide you with greater knowledge of what ADHD is, its symptoms and signs, and we'll explore common ADHD challenges and share practical ways to manage impulsive behaviours, improve focus and regulation, and build more positive relationships. You'll leave with effective strategies and understanding to help make parenting a child with challenging behaviours and ADHD a little easier.
