

RRM Email Blast January 20, 2017

Please join School Council for this fun, FREE and informative night to celebrate Reading.

We have many fun and interactive family activities to choose from including Giant Boggle, Reading Twister and many more. Challenge your child's word recognition skills with fun, family competitions!

After your activities, join us in the Library for a Make & Take bookmark craft and family story time. Cookies and milk will be served.

All children who attend the event will receive a free book to take home and all parents will receive an informative handbook to support reading at home.

This is our first event of this kind, where we combine family time with both fun and learning. We hope to see many of our RRM family, please follow the link to RSVP for this event:
