

RRM Email Blast December 1 , 2018:

1. Please visit our School Website to read our December School Newsletter. There are many special days during the month of December and we don't want your child to miss any of the fun.

2. Thanks to all parents/guardians who met with school staff on Thursday and Friday to discuss your child's progress. We appreciate your support in helping our students achieve their identified goals over the next few months. First Term Reports will be coming home in February.
3. With the arrival of winter weather, we seem to have more students arriving late in the morning. This tardiness is disruptive to our classroom learning. We would appreciate families ensuring your children arrive at the school in time for the 8:55 bell, so they can join their class at entry time and everyone can have a smooth start to the day. If students arrive after the bell, they need to come to the office first to receive a late slip so it can be recorded properly.
4. Spirit Day on Friday! Wear Wacky Socks!
