Course Description: This course equips students with the knowledge and skills they need to make healthy choices now and lead healthy, active lives in the future. Through participation in a wide range of physical activities, students develop knowledge and skills related to movement competence and personal fitness that provide a foundation for active living. Students also acquire an understanding of the factors and skills that contribute to healthy development and learn how their own well-being is affected by, and affects, the world around them. Students build their sense of self, learn to interact positively with others, and develop their ability to think critically and creatively.

Potential Enhancement Opportunity Fees ($0 - $50): All students will have the opportunity to demonstrate course expectations and attain the course credit with no financial cost. Some courses may provide enhancement opportunities for students to extend their learning and enrich their experience. These potential enhancements will incur a cost which the student will be expected to pay. The enhancement fee for this course will be outlined once the teacher has determined class interest. This fee could include, but is not limited to the following enhancement(s):

- Zumba, Gymnastics, Swimming, Rock Climbing, Hiking, Skating, Yoga, Skiing, Orienteering, Golf, Crossfit, Curling

Financial assistance may be provided to support a student due to financial hardship or circumstance. Please speak with your teacher directly or ask your parent or guardian to contact a member of the administrative team.

Big Ideas:

Fitness: Having a plan, and setting goals affects who we are and who we want to become.

Activity: Applying movement skills and strategies will improve our participation in physical activities. This will also improve our fitness and will encourage us to continue with lifelong physical activity.

Health: Understanding the components of personal health and wellness will allow us to make positive lifestyle choices.

Overall Curriculum Expectations:

Living Skills

By the end of this course, students will: demonstrate personal and interpersonal skills and the use of critical and creative thinking processes as they acquire knowledge and skills in connection with the expectations in the Active Living, Movement Competence, and Healthy Living strands for this grade.

Active Living

By the end of this course, students will:

- A1. participate actively and regularly in a wide variety of physical activities, and demonstrate an understanding of factors that can influence and support their participation in physical activity now and throughout their lives;
- A2. demonstrate an understanding of the importance of being physically active, and apply physical fitness concepts and practices that contribute to healthy, active living;
- A3. demonstrate responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others as they participate in physical activities

Movement Competence: skills, concepts, and strategies

By the end of this course, students will:

- B1. perform movement skills, demonstrating an understanding of the basic requirements of the skills and applying movement concepts as appropriate, as they engage in a variety of physical activities;
- B2. apply movement strategies appropriately, demonstrating an understanding of the components of a variety of physical activities, in order to enhance their ability to participate successfully in those activities

Healthy Living

By the end of this course, students will:

- C1. demonstrate an understanding of factors that contribute to healthy development;
- C2. demonstrate the ability to apply health knowledge and living skills to make reasoned decisions and take appropriate actions relating to their personal health and well-being;
- C3. demonstrate the ability to make connections that relate to health and well-being – how their choices and behaviours affect both themselves and others, and how factors in the world around them affect their own and others' health and well-being.

Instructional Strategies: Westside teaching staff will use a variety of instructional strategies to help students develop and improve skills in the following areas: character, citizenship, communication, critical thinking and problem solving, collaboration and teamwork, and creativity and imagination.

Assessment and Evaluation:

Formative assessments are used to improve student learning by providing varied opportunities to demonstrate an understanding of course expectations in preparation for summative evaluations. Summative evaluations test groups of key expectations. Failure to complete a summative evaluation may result in the expectations of the course not being met and the credit not being granted.
